Notice of Unpaid Balance & Right to File Lien

Purpose

To give notice of a potential lien claim against a residential property under the Construction Lien Law.

Requirements

The document submitted must be in substantially the same form as contained in N.J.S.A. 2A:44A-20:

1. Name of claimant
2. Address of claimant
3. Date of the potential construction lien
4. Name of the property owner(s), lessee(s) or other interest against whom the potential construction lien is to be claimed
5. Description of the property, including block and lot as shown on the official tax map of the municipality
6. Total contract amount, amendments to contract, credits, amount paid to date and amount of the potential Lien Claim
7. Date of written contract between the claimant and other parties to that written contract, or in the case of a supplier, the date of a delivery or order slip signed by the owner, contractor, or subcontractor having a direct contractual relationship with the contractor, or an authorized agent of any of them
8. The date that the last work, services, material or equipment for which payment is claimed was provided
9. Whether or not the written contract is a residential construction contract as defined in N.J.S.A. 2A:44A-2 (includes but is not limited to single or 2 family dwellings and individual residential condominium units)
10. Statement of purpose of notification
11. Signature of claimant
12. Representation and verification, signed by claimant
13. Printed or typed name, and title if any, of claimant below signature(s). (N.J.S.A. 46:15-1.1(4))
14. Must be in English. (N.J.S.A. 46:15-1.1(1))
15. Document must be clear and legible print for accurate reproduction. (N.J.S.A. 46:19-3)
16. Record and return information on document. (N.J.S.A. 46:19-5)

Note: The Construction Lien Law N.J.S.A. 2A:44A-1 et seq. replaced the Mechanic's Lien Law. The Construction Lien Claim must be filed within 90 days after work is completed. A residential claimant should file a report with the Arbitration Association. New Jersey Statutory Law requires an original contract to have been in existence in order to file a Construction Lien Claim.

Fees
